

What emerging options or topics are we called to develop as a Congregation in the next three years? (Indicates THREE in order of importance)

Strengthening Life and Mission, Vocational Culture and Charism

Shared with the laity

Pastoral (Youth) and Vocational Culture

Formation of sisters and laity leadership

Appreciative enquiry

Discerning/Rearranging/Reviewing Human, Economic Resources and Works

human resources

Economic

Single government process of the Congregation

Creativity in answers

Accept the novelty

Communication of economic goods and human resources

Accompany the young people where they are, as they are

Interculturality, inculturation

sustainability

Building communion and strengthening relationships interchange

Living Synodality

Contemplation/Spirituality

Contemplation in action.

In the middle of our six-years journey, in the context of our world and on the horizon of Missionary Reform, we feel that God calls us to focus on the following emerging calls that lead us to co-create in:

- 1. Sense of the Congregational Body: conversion; Interculturality, fraternity; exchange and integration of diversity;
- 2. Sustainability – care: the charism lived and shared by different vocations; vocational culture; communion of goods; accompaniment;

3. Way (mode) of exercise of government: paradigm shift; synodal; appreciative; governance structures.