Jon 12:1-3

"Six days before the Jewish holiday of Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus lived, whom he had raised from the dead. They offered a dinner there in honor of Jesus. Martha served the table and Lazarus was one of the guests.

Mary showed up with a very expensive perfume bottle, almost half a liter of pure tuberose, anointed the feet of Jesus and she dried them with her hair and he house was filled with the smell of perfume"

Trabajo de grupo – Group work – Travail en groupe

¿En qué momento estoy sobre mi proceso afectivo-emocional?
¿Dónde he llegado o con qué me he parado porque me hace bien, me interesa, necesito profundizar?

Où en suis-je dans mon processus affectif-émotionnel ? Où suis-je arrivé ou qu'est-ce que j'ai arrêté parce que c'est bon pour moi, ça m'intéresse, j'ai besoin d'aller plus loin ?

At what point am I in my affective-emotional process?
Where have I arrived or what have I stopped with because it is good for me, I am interested in it, I need to go deeper?

¿De todo lo que has ido orando y reflexionando que te resulta más iluminador o clarificador en tu momento personal?

De tout ce que vous avez prié et réfléchi, qu'est-ce qui vous a le plus éclairé ou clarifié dans votre moment personnel ?

Of all that you have been praying and reflecting on, what do you find most enlightening or clarifying in your personal moment?

- Nombrar una coordinadora en el grupo que cuide de que todas puedan expresarse.
- Elegir una secretaria que recoja los aspectos más relevantes compartidos.

Désignez un coordinateur dans le groupe pour veiller à ce que chacun puisse s'exprimer.

Choisissez un secrétaire pour enregistrer les aspects les plus pertinents partagés.

Appoint a coordinator in the group to ensure that everyone can express themselves.

Choose a secretary to record the most relevant aspects shared.

We invite the secretaries of each group to write in the chat what has emerged from the sharing around the questions.

In addition, we will invite some groups to share their response by taking the floor.
